FOR THE SAINTS: Mode 4.

Your Church is arrayed in the holy blood of Your Martyrs who witnessed throughout the world, as though in purple and fine linen. APOLYTIKION OF THE MEMORIAL: Mode pl. 4.

APOLYTIKION OF THE CHURCH: Mode pl. 4.

Blessed are You, O Christ our God, * who made fishermen all wise, * by sending down upon them the Holy Spirit, * and through them, * drawing all the world into Your net. * O Lover of mankind, glory to You.

KONTAKION: Mode pl. 4.

O Planter of creation, Lord, to You does the entire world bring as an offering the God-bearing martyr Saints, as being nature's first fruits. At their earnest entreaties, keep Your Church in a state of profoundest peace, through the Theotokos, O Lord abundantly merciful.

THE EPISTLE READING

Prokeimenon. Mode 4

Psalm 67.35,26

God is wonderful among his saints.

Verse: Bless God in the congregations.

Hebrews 11:33-40; 12:1-2

Brethren, all the saints through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, received promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead by resurrection. Some were tortured, refusing to accept release, that they might rise again to a better life. Others suffered mocking and scourging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were tempted, they were killed with the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, ill-treated - of whom the world was not worthy - wandering over deserts and mountains and in dens and caves of the earth. And all these, though well attested by their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had foreseen something better for us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect. Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.

THE GOSPEL READING

Matthew 10:32-33; 37-38; 19:27-30

The Lord said to his disciples, "Every one who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven; but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny him before my Father who is in heaven. He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and he who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me." Then Peter said in reply, "Lo, we have left everything and followed you. What then shall we have?" Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, in the new world, when the Son of man shall sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life. But many that are first will be last, and the last first."

CRANIUM CHRONICLES

Week 3 of Summer Semester has proven lively and varied. We welcomed both new Members and Volunteers. UCF Intern Lexi Abrams will be with us this summer; her goal is to become a Physician Assistant. The Philanthropy Director from Second Harvest Food Bank brought a meaningful video and slide show sharing the mission and scope of work offered by Second Harvest. The behind the scenes look at the complex warehouse was fascinating and the data about food insecurity is staggering. We were reminded how their services make all the difference between facing hunger and being supported with dignity. BFA Members and volunteers generously brought staples and canned goods; Arika returned to Second Harvest with 4 filled boxes. It was an emotional and impactful learning experience!

Our members enjoy competitive games in the classroom and in exercise. Noodle volleyball and Jeopardy remain hits. New curriculum items have been enriched class materials to strengthen memory, reasoning, speed of processing, concentration, and more.

We want to thank Larry R., Elena K., Caroline M., Lexi A., Stella S., Callie H, Elaine G., Patty T., Jeanine B. for their ongoing commitment to our members. A special shout out to Jim Sirks who painted about 800 clothes pins for the striking red, white and blue patriotic wreaths he and Stella taught members to make. The extra hands of Volunteers are invaluable and add a richness to our time together. Check BFA out before July 2nd if you are curious about what Brain Fitness Academy is all about!

Senior Outreach

Are you a caregiver or responsible for an aging adult whose needs are changing? Are you struggling through the process? Have you wondered what skilled nursing, assisted living, rehab and home health care really mean? Are you approaching retirement and are you confused about healthcare, long term care, downsizing or health insurance options? Do you wonder what documents you should have to protect yourself or your loved one? Do you know what "aging in place" is and what Hospice care involves?

The Senior Outreach Ministry is all about finding answers to questions and understanding resources. Guidance exists for you at the Holy Trinity. If you have wanted confidential help through the health care maze, please reach out!

Become a Steward

Orthodox Christian Stewardship is a way of life, which acknowledges accountability, reverence, and responsibility before God.

A primary goal of Stewardship is to promote spiritual growth and strengthen faith.

As Stewards, we affirm that every aspect of our lives comes as a gift from Him. Stewardship calls on the faithful to cheerfully offer back to God a portion of the gifts with which they have been blessed.
